

The map displays San Francisco with a coordinate grid from 0 to 5 km. Four locations are marked with colored circles: PIER 39 (top right), Union Square (center), Westfield San Francisco Centre (bottom center), and South of Market (bottom left). Numerous colored lines connect these locations, representing movement paths. Three specific areas are highlighted with black rectangles: one near PIER 39, one near Union Square, and one near the South of Market area. The map also shows major streets like Bay St, Columbus Ave, and various landmarks like Marina Green and Fisherman's Wharf.
